Due to the declaration by the Supreme Court that the DAP funds is unconstitutional, the funding support for the Academic Complementation may no longer be released as it is supposed to come from the DAP funds. While the Academic Complementation program is a noble undertaking and needs to be continued in some other ways, there is a need to undertake the needed adjustments immediately. to wit:

- A. Pre-terminate your services in the project as the funding is uncertain as of the moment;
- B. Your services however will be continued chargeable from the NIKE funds to wrap-up all remaining activities and finalize the terminal and financial reports for said project.
- C. Please make the necessary arrangements for a service contract covering the period of July 1, 2014 to July 31, 2014 charged to the NIKE Project funds. During this period, you are to report directly to the University President who is the overall project leader of the NIKE project.
- D. You are also to finalize the reports of activities in the Academic Complementation Project Phase 2 and submit the same to the CARASUC Executive Director. A proper inventory of properties and equipment procured for the academic complementation project must also be undertaken and turned over to the supply office to be given to the CARASUC office.

For your commitment and compliance.
